

Intuitive Playshop

A full day of exercises and experiences to stimulate your right brain and open your natural intuition...

We'll activate intuning to increase the quantity of intuition you receive, and practice narrowing focus to enhance the quality of what you receive.

*Plus, we'll play with making personal medicine pieces - they help make intuitive support more tangible to you in your daily life.

My workshops are always small group experiences, and include plenty of personal coaching from me. Seating is limited. Reserve early to save your seat.

ABOUT YOUR FACILITATOR:

I am a full-time professional intuitive and animal communicator. I've recorded over 26,000 sessions with people from all walks of life. The vast majority of folks are referred by word of mouth. I help people gain insight about themselves and their lives from their soul's perspective. I also teach small group workshops and mentor others as they develop their own intuition. Confused about a relationship? Have a troubling question? Let's talk... Jacque

 Intuitive support is the tangible, obvious, felt-sense that you are not alone, ever - no matter what. It is a knowing or certainty that you are connected to a conscious intelligence. It is the energy-light-love-sound-vibration that sustains you.*
